

Privacy Policy

April 25, 2023

This Privacy Policy describes how we collect, use, and share information when you use our website. By accessing or using our website, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy.

Information We Collect

We collect information that you provide to us, such as your name, email address, and any other information you choose to provide when filling out forms on our website. We also collect information automatically through the use of cookies and other similar technologies.

How We Use Your Information

We use the information we collect to provide, maintain, and improve our website and services, to communicate with you, and to personalize your experience on our website. We may also use your information to comply with legal obligations or enforce our policies.

We use this information to provide our services to you and to improve our website. Cookies and similar technologies we use for a variety of reasons, including: To collect information about your use of our website, such as what pages you visit or the links you click on; To help us identify your device so we can offer a better, more personalized experience; To store your preferences so that we can tailor content on our sites or applications; To target advertising based on your interests.

Sharing Your Information

We may share your information with third-party service providers who assist us in providing our website and services.

We may also share your information with law enforcement or regulatory authorities when required by law or to protect our legal rights. We also share your information with our affiliates, which are companies related to us by common ownership or control.

We may also sell or buy assets, including businesses, and we may transfer any personal information we have about you in connection with a sale or acquisition of assets.

We may also share your information with our subsidiaries and affiliates, who may use it to send you promotional materials. Our websites and applications may also use cookies to collect information about your use of our website.

A cookie is a small file that is placed on your computer's hard drive. We use cookies to help us remember who you are when you return to our site, so we can provide a more personalized experience. Cookies also enable us to understand how visitors move around our sites and applications, which helps us improve the user experience.

Security

We take reasonable measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, disclosure,
